

Local Matters.

The Racers—Col. John Campbell's stable of racehorses, including Little McDonnell and his Glance out, will arrive at the steamer Waverley to-day.

PLANTATION AND NEGROES FOR SALE.—The plantation advertised for sale by Mr. Morris, was sold to Mr. J. C. Morris, of the firm of Morris & Morris, in the city, for $10,000. The slaves were retained by the new owners, and are to be sold at a reasonable price.

SHREWD OF MULERS.—Our fellow citizens Mr. Griffith shipped a drove of mules to the South, and have since sent word, that they are all complete, and offered for sale.

SOUTH MEMPHIS DRAVING CLUB.—There will be a meeting of the South Memphis Draving Club at their usual room, Second Street, this evening at 8 P.M. The officers will be present, and the members are invited to attend the meeting, which will be very well deserved.

NEW MEMPHIS THEATRE.—The attendance has been very full, though not up to this point of admission, as expected. Miss Cooper appeared as the leading lady, and the audience was greatly pleased with her. The character is well演繹ed, and the wit admirably sustained throughout. The audience was greatly pleased with the comic scenes, and when the curtain went down, the author was called for again, and when he had accepted, the verdict of the audience was, however, that he was the greatest, but not the best, in the house.

MISSISSIPPI DRAVING CLUB.—The members have voted to make the New Orleans, N. O., and New Orleans, La., their permanent home, and are now preparing to open a branch of their club in the latter city.

SALE OF LOVE.—We advertise this morning the sale of some love and affection, and we hope to find a good home for it. We will place it on Wednesday in front of Loring's store. It is a safe worth of attachment, and will receive the payment you require.

SOUTHERN MEMPHIS DRAVING CLUB.—Members, Conley and Miller, teachers of music, will address the members of the Southern Draving Club at their usual room, Second Street, on Saturday evening.

MEMPHIS EXPRESS COMPANY.—We are indebted to Mr. H. Bowles for the express company.

MEMPHIS CONFERENCE.—The next conference in this city will be held on the 1st of November. The Advocate says: "The preachers attending the annual session of the Memphis Conference, as well as those of the other conferences, will be present at the Conference."

CRIMINAL COURT.—In this tribunals yesterday, J. Washington Williams, charged with having committed a robbery, was taken up and tried, and sentenced to the penitentiary for a period of two years.

FAIR DAYTON.—No less than five persons were arrested at the Barber's restaurant for fast driving, including Harry Barnes, Mr. Durig, Mr. H. C. Jones, Mr. G. W. Jones, Mr. Clegg, and Mr. Davis, and passed under the ordinance against such misdemeanors.

THOMAS RICE.—Imposter and scoundrel, and a pest to all men, was born at New Orleans, 1808, and died at New Orleans, 1849.

ARKANSAS LAND IN CRITTENDEN COUNTY.—A man was shot dead at the residence of Mrs. Crittenden, on Main Street, at the residence of Mr. Crittenden, and was found to be shot in the head, and was in his 60's, he was shot, it is said, by his son-in-law, who was then 20 years old.

ATTORNEY GENERAL.—We are indebted to Mr. S. B. SNADELL for the office of Attorney General for the Fifth District.
